1,176 Total Cain

Or Nearly 33 Per Cent.

PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

ing Its Violation.

fore the Excise Board.

Dan Scribner Gives Up His License and Goes Into Hiding.

Indorsed by the West Side Excise Reform Association.

NEW YORK'S OUTLAWS.

[A Table Subject to Daily Change. In the Penttentiory. | AUGUST GUIDON.

TOM GOULD. CAREY WELCH. LOUIS WALTHERS, DAN SCRIBNER.

JOHN KELLY.
PAUL M'CARTHY,
J. J M'ALEER.
CHARLES SMITH,
THOS. M'CORMICK.
AL DAVIS. CHARLES SMITH

John Wulfers, who keeps the saloon at 7: University place, with an annex which for nearly two years has been a resort for prostitutes, will be tried to-day before the Board of Third Assembly District, and the boast is made that his political pull will not only save being laid before the Grand Jury. It is to be | 235 sullivan street. hoped that this boast is not true.

The evidence against Wulfers is convincing. Those who are trying to shield him, while for prostitutes, claim that Wulfers was not aware of it, hoping to get him clear on a tech-scaled in the form of sworn testimony.

John Wulfers, the admitted proprietor of premises known as "The Universe," at 72 University place, is guilty of misdemeanor

NAME OF STATE OF STAT

Tessimony that the decency of the street in front of Wulfers's has been disturbed by prostlintes who congreers-by to go inside.

gated about his door and solicited passers-by to go inside.
Official report of Police Capt. Ryan that Wulfers's place has been a "resort for prostitutes and their associates," Testimony of President Menkim, of the eligator that he was solicited in front Walfers's by a prostitute, taken inside and there asked to go to a weigh-boring house of Ill-fame. Testimony of President Meakim that he was solicited in front of Wulfers's by a prostitute and urged to go inside and "trent" her. Testimony of President Menkim that he sawa batters drunked woman thrown out of Wulfers's side door, the calling of Wolfers's attention to it and warning by the Pennsylvania express coulding with a by the Pennsylvania express confiding with a Lehigh Vailey accommoda ion, caused by a misunderstanding of orders on the part of the Lehigh crew. Jacob Biederfick, engineer, of Sunbury, was killed. The injured are: A. P. Biakostey, Belano, Assistant Superintendent Lehigh road, leg broken, and scalp wound charles Findey, shamokin, leg broken William Harnley, sunbury, fireman, fatally crushed: John Leyhten, Shamokin, leg broken; William Staht, Roaring Creek, news-boy, legs crushed; skull fractured. Severa Testimony of "Evening World" Investigator's that they were solicited from the doorway of Wulfers's annex on sev-

Under section 322 of the Penal Code above Quoted Wulfers is guilty on two counts. namely—Recptog an "assignation house" and keeping a place of public resort by which the decency of a neighborhood was habitually

Police Capt. Ryan's report on Wulters's place is as follows:

Police Department of the City of New York.
Preciuct No. 15,
New York, Jun. 14, 1892.

Vm. Marray, Supt.: Sir: I berewith submit the following report relative to the character and rep-utation of premises 12 University place, also of the licensee, John Walters. I am informed by members of my com-mand that the place recently has been a esort for prostitutes and their asso ciates.

I know nothing against the character of the licenser, only that he is the proprictor of the above mentioned place.

THOMAS M. RYAN, Captain. MR. SCRIBNER IN HIDING.

His Dive Closed for Good and His Liquor License Surrendered. Still another of New York's dive-keepers as gone into hiding as a result of the crusade carried on in the public service by Tirk Kyks-NG WORLD. Mr. Daniel Scribner, whose palattal "Pickwick" at 1347 Broadway, has been tightly closed for the past week, concluded, after ruminating upon the fate that had overtaken Mr. Billy McGlory and Mr. August Guidon, that a change of climate was necessary to his continued good health. To save the city the expense of maintaining him for a time at the unpopular island reacrt in the East River, he decided to pay his own way and select quarters more congenial than those provided for ontinued good health. To save the city the ers more congenial than those provided for Messrs Guldon and McGlory. Then Mr. Serther packed up his gripsack and went-his ntimates refuse to tell where.

When Dan read in THE EVENING WORLD that the Excise authorities wanted him to appear before the Board to confer about the casons why his license should be revoked he became disheartened and evidently decided hat there was "no more show" for him in

At any rate he surrendered his license by sending it to the Board and at once became very much missing. His friends say that ne has left the city. Mr. Scribner originally came to New York from Chicago. It is barely possible that he has returned to the Windy City and that he intends to open a branch of the "Pickwick" hear the World's Fair

If Mr. Scribner remains out of town very long his absence will cost him the $1,000 which he deposited in cash with Clerk Unger, of the District-Attorney's office recently as evidence of his willingness to stand trial on the indictment against him for keeping a disorderly house. In addition to Mr. Scribner's "Pickwick," these dives were also closed tight last night ir. Tom Gould's, Sixth avenue and Twentythird street; Mr. Carey Welch's " Hole in the Wall," 117 Fourth avenue; Mr. Jim Sullivan's 'Farley's Hotel," 78 Third avenue: Mr lfred Davis's "Excise Exchange," Mr. Pau McCarthy's, Mr. John J. McAleer's Mr. Louis Walther's, Mr. John H. McGurk's and Mr. Charles Smith's, at 336, 327, 299, 285, 253 and 197 Bowery respectively; Mr. Tom Stevenson's "Side," at 157 Bleecker street, his license, but that it has kept his case from and Mr. August Guidon's "French Hotel," a side. But they found no victims, and one of them cursed her luck in terms too profane for publication.

Mr. "Honest" John Kelly and Mr. Tom Mo Cormick, at 520 and 526 Sixth avenue, kept their bars open last night, but their dive ap nexes were closed tight.

Mr. John J. Murphy, who closed up his "Metropolitan" at 34 Bond street entirely on Thursday night, reopened his bar for a quiet legitimate business inst night, but kept hi dance-hall annex tightly closed.

The "escort" rule, too, kept many females

tion overheard by an Eventna World inves tigator it was gathered that one "lady

INDORSES "THE EVENING WORLD'S" WORK.

The West Side Excise Reform Association.

whose object is to prevent the establishment ciation pledged its support and co-operation.

Collision.

INT ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Mr. simon Buttner, who recently converted his all-night annex at 304 Bowery into a poolroom, is again doing a quiet dive business on a small scale.

First Race—Missive, Marty B. Second Race—Duke John, W. B. H. Third Race—Giadlator, O. P. B. Pourth Race—Ma Belle, Brussels, Fifth Race—Toano, Mohican, SIXth Race—Joe Courtney, Feeberg. place, when The Evenino World casually re-ferred to the numerous secret exits that abounded there, but a few days ago he put up two "boxes" in the south-east corner of h back-room. Into these stalls women who are known to him are now admitted, and the "family entrance" is again open for busi-First Race—Missive, Baylor. Second Race—Shotover, Duke John. Third Race—Onager, Gladiator. Fourth Race—Ma Belle, Sir Rac. Firth Race—Tonno, Mobican. Sixth Race—Jos Courtney, Jeeberg. Louis Stajer's " concert hall," at 255 Bowery, and Ignatz Buttner's "Orpheum," at 204 Bowery, are still in full blast, but "business

First Race—Missive, Under Cover, Second Race—St. Patrick, Duke John. Third Race—O. P. B., Gladlator, Fourth Race—Ma Belle, Glenlochy, Firth Race—Toano, Mohican, Sixth Race—Eleve, Iceberg. s very light," the "barkceps" complain. For at least half an hour last night not woman entered Stajer's, and the watters almost went to sleep where they stood. Pinally two female habitues of the place "caught on" and secured "escorts" who got them in

> A Little Girl Turned Out of Doors by a Heartless Mother.

out of the " Orphoum," and from a conversa-In the Harlem Court to-day eleven-year-id Mary Schmidt was committed to the care. Then comes the proof of the dreadful strug of the Children's Society. The story of the gle with that deficious languor that wrappe actually "paid an old burn a quarter "to take her and her "lady friend" into the place. case shows that the girl was heartiessly dredth street station, found the child crying agree that it was unmistakably the sleep of it One Hundred and Fifth street and Ninth avenue at 7.30 last night. She told him that of morphine.

O'NEILL'S EMPLOYEES TO DANCE. commonly harmless morphine dose fatal to Take Piece To-Night.

H. O'Neill & Co.'s employees will hold their unual musical and reception this evening in Lenox Lyceum, under the auspices of their Mutual Benefit Association, Mr. Hugh O'Neill, MARIONEY CITY, Pa., Jan. 29. In the dis-astrous wreck which occurred in a cut on the Pennsylvanta Ratiroad hear here yesterday strumental music, and vocal selections will be given by Misses dendie button and Bertha Behrens, Mrs. J. B. Welkinley, Messes Macy, Hartdegen, Bryan, McKinley, Fulton, Dufft and Frost. The order of dancing contains carried was unusual activity among his law continued. McAuliffe's orchestra will furnish the in-

Him of Wife Murder.

Lawyer Taylor's Opening Address to the Jury.

Array of Circumstantial Evidence to be Overcome.

The jurors have heard all the evidence they know all the circurastances which the his unacknowledged schoolgirl wife, Mary Helen Nellson Potts Harris, a fatal morphine

HARRIS LEAVING THE BLACK MARIA. The motive, the prosecution claims, was the most sordid selfishuess. Harris, according t most sordid selfishness. Harris, according to the trend of the testimony against him, wa ambitious in his chosen profession, and dente ambitious in his chosen profession, and dented with that ambition; denied her because of his intrigue with Queenle Drew, and, if the testimony of Dr. Treverton, of Scranton, be accepted, denied her because he had alread;

112 Count Luns 106 103 wife, to show that this motive induced a 109 spendar 07 threat. To Miss Schofield Harris said, angrily, according to her deposition :
"My prospects will be utterly ruined if this marriage is known. I would rather kill be and kill myself than have the marriage pub lished. I wish that she (Helen) were dead and I were out of it." Uncontradicted and unexplained, the ev ence is strong proof of motive and, the prosecution insist, of intent of murder in the heart of Carlyle W. Harris.

BARRIS IN AN EASY ATTITUDE. Then comes the proof that Harris had pre-scribed for Helen Potts's sick headache and grain quintne pilis, each containing 1-0 of a grain of morphine-a hormless less dose prescribed, and exonerated Druggist Melatyre of any mistake in compounding the

Then the proof that Harris's lovely patient the wife whom he would not acknowledge took the fourth—the last of these capsules in the box, and fell into a sleep filled with bear the beautiful Relen in its remerseless folds and dragged her across the border into that land of endless sleep. And three physicians one whose senses were dulled by the pole

Then the autopsy by Dr. Allen McLand the had lived with her mother at Fifteenth street and Avenue A; that her mother had numed her out of doors yesterday, and when the came back she found her mother had nts story that there was no discuse of any organ that might have produced her death nor that might have made the operation of a > ing analysis of the stomach and other parts of the body of the dead girl, showing the presence of morphine there, even fifty-five days thought the factory will be entirely deafter her death, with never a trace or a signof quinine there.

> That is to say, if that hat plit from the box that her scoret husband gave to her was the dose that wrought her death, it was not like its companions in the box, but was a deadly

IS SUPT. MURRAY TO RETIRE?

1007. Figs crushed, skill fractured. Several there were elightly out and broked.

1008. Death of a Boy Caused by a Nall, 1874-301-317-318.

1009. Beat of Indicate It. A bill has been introduced in the senate by Senator Edward P. Hagan providing that all the Superincedent, inspectors and Captains of Police, when retired, shall be pensioned at Several services of Michael Waldecker, of the Services of Michael Waldecker, o people with an address which he announced would consume an hour and a half, to be tol-lowed by the presentation of fitteen wit-nesses, most of them learned medical ex-perts and whose examinations will consume at least ten court days.

at least ten court days.

TESTIMONY WILL OCCUPY TEN DAYS.

Mr. Taylor declared at the outset that Carlyle W. Harris had listened for ten days to the testimony against him and had preserved his seif-respect.

"His indictment was born of a great suspiction. Horn in the mind of a pure, good, true hearted mother and fanned into a terrible flame by eminty." he said.

Mrs. Potts, this true-hearted mother, in mourning weeds for the dead rictim of morphine poison, sitting on a son at the right of decorder Smyth, and, supported by her sturdy, hoary-headed husband, was convulsed in grief, and sobbed and wept during the address.

LAWYER TAYLOR'S ADDRESS.

LAWVER TAYLOR'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Taylor declared that "for twelve months the great County of New York had bent its energies, has spared no expense in building up this case against this boy of twenty years.

"They have brought to bear all the force and power of the courts of this county, and have carefully prepared the case.

"You twelve men have listened carefully to the flow of flith that has come from the withness box during the past two weeks. I trust that you have not prejudged the case, and that you will listen with the same attention to the defense which we have found and shall set up, suspending your judgment until we have done paying no attention to calumay from without. "Who is this prisoner? He is the grandson of one of the most distinguished men, who during a lifetime of forty or flity years in this city has honored his city, dignified his profession and advanced science—br. McCready.

"In mother is a gentle, refined, spiritually minded woman, whose writings are in every house in this country. She has followed him into court; has been with him in the hour of his deep trouble, and will never desert him to the last.

"In such a condition of life as theirs the Upas tree of murder does not grow. He has been an industrious sudent, pursuing he studies with such avidity et College that, before this rouble had come upon him, had taken the first hospital prize against all competitors.

FIERCE BATTLE LOOKED FOR.

Garza on the Move with an Army of Perhaps 5,000 Men.

IPY ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1 Sr. Louis, Jan. 29 .- Additional advices rom the Mexican border confirm the report that Garza has crossed into Mexico with 4,500 5,000 well-armed and mounted Mexicans.

He has another band in the Santa Rosa Mountain country of 1,500 to 1,800 men, well armed and mounted, under command of Gen. Francisco Ralos, and 4t is a well-known fact among all the Mexicans who try to find out anything about the trouble that Garza will have at least two thirds or the entire Mexican population on his side when the proper time comes to show up, which will be immediately after the first fight, which will take place not later than equipped for war, were seen yesterday heading for the Rio Grande to join Garza. This was near Senora, Sutton County, Texas. There is great excitement all along the upper part of the border, not only among the Mexicans but among the Americans as well.

Tex., daily and organize. They are not me-lested by officers of the law and are permitted to proceed on their way to Mexican territory MAJOR GEN. BARNUM IS DEAD.

One of the Most Distinguished of New York's War Veterans.

hotel for several days, but a fatal termination of his illness was not expected so soon. tien. Barnum complained of a severe cold on sunday last, and his physician, Dr. B. G. Sunday last, and his physician, Dr. B. G. Carleton, pronounced his case to be one of pneumonia. Since then he has been lying between life and dea h. On Wednesday bis brother, Capt. Willis Barnum, of Syracuse, was summoned, and he arrived yesterday. He was with the General when the end came.

BROOKLYN FACTORY

Narrow Escape of Firemen in Young & Sons' Building.

The bagging factory of Peter Young & sons, South Third street, near Kent avenue, Brookiya, caught fire this morning. Three starins strayed. Four firemen had a narrow escape. They were on the roof and just stepped back in time as a large section of it caved in. About two hundred women and girls and fifty men are employed in the factory.

JEALOUSY LED TO MURDER. FOREIGN NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Shot He Fired at Her Sister Mr. Spurgeon's Quiet Night Suicide Will Not Prove Fatal.

Arthur Stocker, the lealous-crazed husband. sho shot and killed his twenty-two-year old Davis.

THE MURDERED WOMAN. The prisoner was brought to court handball for further examination to-morrow. Mrs. Stocker, who was killed, and her sister, Mary Tierney, who was wounded by Stocker, vere remarkably beautiful young women. with a reputation for being a little fast.

tay morning by John E. Dunne and George Bremner, well-known Jersey City politicians, who remained in the house, no Zabriskie street, until 12,20 o'clock in the afternoon, when the husband o Mrs. Stocker became infurlated and shot his wife dead and seriously wounded her sister after having fired ineffectual shots at the two men.

The prisoner is a fairly good looking young man of twenty-nine years, with a slightly baid head and a drooping black mustache. He is a roofer by trade.

EVENING WORLD reporter, but his brother. him in his cell in the station-house. Louis said to the reporter: " My brother had plenty of cause for doing what he did. His wife has long been un-raithful to him and sought the company of Bands of the revolutionists meet at Senora, a year, but his money gave out and he had, to stop proceedings.

"His wite and her sister have often visited the race track at Guttenburg, and some of those big political chaps, who are mixed up with the Big Four who own the track, were very attentive to them. They would give the girls money to 'play the races."

The general impression in Jersey City to-day seeined to be that Stocker would never suffer the full extent of the law for his erime. The awful crime of murder is not excused by any, but there were many expressions of opinion that in this case there were very many elements of extenuation.

Gen. Henry A. Barnum, the distiguished and gallant . war veteran and one of the Port Wardens of this city, died this morning at his rooms, at 100 West.

His wife's sister, Mary Tierney, is said to-this morning, at his rooms, at 100 West.

Fort Wardens of this country, ord this morning, at his rooms, at 100 West Forty-fourth street, which form part of the Sixth Avenue Hotel.

Sixth Avenue Hotel.

Gen. Barnum has been critically ill at the hotel for several days, but a fatal termina-

Tows examination.
Louis Stocker told THE EVENING WORLD TO

WHO IS BEHIND IT?

and Eastern Ratiroad to build its line. affects New York interests, but it does, i affects New York interests, but it dies, let the ratifood in question is a proposed line running through the Annexed district from the northeast, crossing the liariem lite-below High Bridge, theoting the Pol-Greunds and running into the city west of Eighth avenue.

It has been a "proposed" ratifood on the map for a number of years, and Assembly-man Mullaney's bill is intended to keep it above.

Party Vote in the Senate on the Nomination for Health Officer.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALBANY, Jan. 20. - The Senate confirmed the nomination of Whitam T. Jenkins to be Health Onicer of the Port of New York by party vote, senator Edwards voting with th

Arthur Stocker Committed for Appointments by London Shareholders of the O. & M.

Hume Webster's Accounts.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The London Committee who shot and killed his twenty-two-year old Mrs. Harris, too, was much affected, but Harris himself seemed finally to will. He laid his head on his mother's bosom. But for a moment, only. Then he resumed the upright and from that instant was composed and calm.

who shot and killed his twenty-two-year old wife Katic and seriously wounded her sister Mary Tierney at their home, to Zabriskie William buil, Edward S. Beil, John Davis and day's Sporting Extra of The Eventso day's Sporting Extra of wife Katic and seriously wounded her sister of the English shareholders in the Ohio and Mary Tierney at their home, 50 Zabriskie Mississippi Railroad Company has appointed William buil, Edward S. Bell, John Davis and WORLD, was arraigned this morning in the Oakland Avenue Police Court, before Justice London Committee in carrying out the arrangements authorized by the English share-holders at the meeting held in London on Oct. 14.

The proposed plan is to place the Ohio and Mississippi road in a condition equal to it rivals, and to fit it to take its position in great and important through line in uniso with the Baltimore and Ohio and the Baitlnore and Oldo Southwestern railways.

Right Hon. John C. Lambert Dead Ex-Mayor of Salisbury.

INV ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1 LONDON, Jan. 29.—The Right Hon. Sir John ambert, K. C. B., P. C., is dead. He was born at Bridger, Tisbury, Wilts, in day morning.

815, was educated at St. Gregory's Colege, Downside, near Bath, and afterwards, having entered the profession of law, practised as a solicitor at Salisbury and was miles off Sandy Hook by the Luckenback, and a deep interest in the condition of the workting people and prepared many important their rescue.

Parliamentary bills looking to the better- Beat No. 5, with Capt. Charles Crump and After Fourty-Four Day's Abstin ence, Faster Succi Given In.

INDON, Jan. 29, Succi, the faster, to-day aband med his attempt to go without food for nity-two days. At noon it was announced that he would not be able to complete his self-imposed abstinence. At that time he had fasted to within a few hours of forty-

Succi presents a most shocking appearance He has lost thirty-seven pounds since his fast

Webster's Exchange Accounts,

Prince George and His Mother to Go

Drawn by the Counsel of the Liquor Dealers' Association.

the Senate, and Mr. Foley, of New York, in he Assembly, to-day introduced bills revisng and consolidating the laws regulating the ale of intexteating fiquors.

The bill contains forty-three sections and as drawn by counsel for the State Wine, Liquor and Beer Dealers' Association.

The first seventeen sections relate to the rice in nowls, threets of star fish, scaweed south finely encoured pora, well spired airly start, and other well that had been well dried in the stan, and other delicious Mengolian Vands, the whole would up with desert of railed waterinchins-seeds and muts, and washed down with rice irrandy and special where. There is the mast of reason and flow of south too, with next after-limit specials by the channest Depews and Hora e Porters of Chinatown.

the channey between the chinatown.

Then there is a Chinese play this evening, in which a mandarin's daughter is stoign by the Tartars, and the stage, in consequence, deluged with Tartarphisod in the last act.

The polarization will wind up towards temporrow metaling.

A Cow as a Train-Wrecker.

ST ASSOCIATED PRESS.

GRACEVILLE, Minn., Jan. 20.—The north

2 O'CLOCK.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ANOTHER PICKED UP.

Scow No. 17 Found Ninety Miles Southeast of Sandy Hook.

Her Crew of Two Men Rescued by The Edgar L. Luckenback.

The log Webster and Scow No. 5 Belleved to Have Gone Down,

The big ocean-going tug Edgar F. Luckenback came into the Atlantic Basin, Brooklyn, at 12.30 o'clock this morning, having in tow another of the Barney dumping-boats which iritied out to sea in the terrible gale of Tues-

The boat was No. 17, one of the tug Edwin Webster's tow, She had been drifting over fifty-one hours when she was picked up ninety dected Mayor of that city in 1854. He took the two men aboard her, Capt. Olaf Dahl and Mate William Larrettson, were overjoyed at > Mate Flavio Canale is believed to be still drifting, but in South street there is but one opinion in regard to the tug Webster-that she has foundered. Only Capt. William Hennessey, the owner of the Webster, and the men in the office of > her charterer, Capt. John A. Maurus at 22 Although the rescued men on Boat No. 17 say that their consort, No. 5, is certainly still affoat, search for her seems to have been abandoned. The Edgar F. Luckenback did ot go out again after docking Boat No. 17. The William E. Chapman, which was sent LONDON, Jan. 29.—It is stafed that the stock Exchange differences of Hume Webster, horse breeder, who committed suicide stock exchange differences of The Luchenbach, which went out shortly out by the Street-Cleaning Department, came > this forepoon unsuccessful, and at the Luchenbach Towing Company's office, Broad and enhach Towing Company's office, Broad and South streets, it was said it had not been decided to send out either of the big tugs again, as there was thought to be little possibility of his taken the Vilia Janssen, at St. Raphael, on the French Riviera, for herself and Prince George for the month of February.

Rev. Mr. Bpurgeon Passes Another Quiet Night.

| Pry associated Passes | Indian St. | Pry associated Passes | Indian St. | Pry associated Passes | Indian St. | Ind

there are four fremen and two deck-hands on board.

An EXENTION WORLD reporter boarded the Egun F. Luckenback in Atlantic Rasin this morning. Capt. Keane told this story of the rescue of Boat No. 17:

"We started out shortly after midnight yesterday morning, after bringing in Boats Nos. 3 and 16. We cruised off Sandy Hook, keeping a close watch with glasses until about 15.30 clock yesterlay morning. We were then bout ninety miles southeast of Sandy Hook, and saw a scow drifting head on before the wind.

were the wind.

Sandy Hook, and saw a scow drifting head on before the wind.

She was flying a little red flag, but there was no sign of life on board. We ran up to her and biew our whistle, which brought two men out of the cabin.

We heaved a small line aboard, and they pulled on one of our big hawsers and made it fast. It was about an hour from the time we sighted her until we got her in tow.

The weather was bad, the wind west by east and heavy cross seas were running. We made a slow trip home, getting here at 12.30 octock this morning. The men on board were very gifd to see us, you may be sure. Capt. Hall said they would have left the boat the day before if they had been afloreded.

The first seventeen sections relate to the constitution and the duties and powers of Excise Commissioners.

Section eighteen provides that Boards of Excise shall not grant any license to any person unless over twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States, resident in this state and of good moral character, approved by the Board.

Nor to any one to sell strong or spirituous done in the properties.

by the Board.

Nor to any one to sell strong or splittous idenors, whose, also or beer in any building used as a court, or its any building used or occupied wholly for state, county or municipal purposes.

Nor it the license of any former licenses of the premises sought to be licensed has been revoked or annuled, unless the applicant satisfy the Board that such former licenses has not and will not have any interest in the business sought to be licensed.

The requirement as to citizenship shall not apply to any person now holding a license.

CHINESE NEW YEAR'S DAY.

Festivities in Progress in Pell, Doyers and Mott Streets.

If you didn't get your linen from the Chinese laundry before the midday hour to-day you will have to wait till to-morrow, for this is the celestial New Year's bay, and the merry makings attending the occasion began at noom.

New York Chinamen congregated in Nott street, and the feativities began with a parade in Yell, Doyers and Mott Streets, accuminated by the fuse and hot of increackers and thinese music.

Fraternal visiting is the programme for the cast of the day and evening, with saquetes or the inwall, all the control of the day and evening, with saquetes or the inwall, all the control of the day and evening, with saquetes or the inwall, there is not a subject at its of the day and evening, with saquetes of the inwall and the search of the day and evening, with saquetes of the inwall and the search of the day and evening, with saquetes of the control of the contro when we got in. No. 2's tien were no worse off and are got for twenty-four hours yet, before real suffering will begin example. Gove, of the Nichols, deserves credit for the effort he made to help us. He couldn't have taken us another if we had then been willing to leave the boats.

George Metz. Mrs. Metz was the only person in the house. Her tody was taken from the ruins burned to a crisp.

Brewed from Malt and Hops Only.

Bupfel Bag Co. Manhattan Hers. 222 E 38th. . .

WULFERS'S CASE.

The Law, and the Evidence Show-

His Trial Comes Up To-Day Be-

"The Evening World's" Crusade

BILLY M'GLORY. Indicted and Dives Closed.

JOHN WULFERS, JOHN J. MURPHY. SIMON BUITNER, FRANK STEVENSON. Dices Open.

Mr. Wulfers is a prominent politician in the

For the benefit of all concerned THE EVEN-ING WORLD gives the evidence against Wulfers in 1 s legal aspect. This evidence can be pre-under section 322 (amended 1887) Penal

The evidence is as follows:

of undestrable saloons on the west side, be tween Eighty-sixth and One Hundred Excise Board, that he summoned Wal- and Twenty-second streets, held its an fers before him: that Wulfers admitted nual meeting last night and unant-the character of his annex, promised to mously adopted a resolution indersing the character of his annex, promised to close it and did close it temporarily. Testimony of an "Evening World" in-THE EVENING WORLD'S auti-dive crusade The resolution expressed the hope that the work would go on until the city had been rid of all its dens of vice, to which end the Ass

One Fatality from a Railroad

erni eccasions.

The admission of guilt by Wulfers in closing his annex after "The Evening World's" crusade against dives began. Testimony about the character of wemen in Wulfers's while an "Evening World " investigator was there on the ghis of Jan. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

times since then, the last time being between POINTERS ON THE RACES. IN HARRIS'S DEFENSE.

Horses That Will Run for Purses His Counsel Begin Efforts to Clear at Guttenburg To-Day.

Quarte | of Interesting Contests Promised-Gloucester's Card.

The programme at Guttenburg to-da; should produce very fair running in four events. In the fourth and fifth races, Ma Belle and Toano are entered. They so far outcloss their competitors that these races will be practically walk-overs and will not interest the public. The other events may urn out some good contests.

It is probable that the daily programm will improve from now on, and with a good prosecution believe unerringly prove that track and fair weather Guttenburg will soon Carlyle W. Harris, medical student, gave to regain the patronage it has lost in the past wo weeks. The entries are as follows :

| Benefit | 120 Baylor | 113 | AuntJane | 111 Longerd | 104 | Stent | 11 Under Cover | 101 | Missive | 110 Little Transday | 101 | Baylor looks the best of this lot, and he may win, with Missive second and Aunt Jane chird.

this race between them, and the writer pre-fers the former. His three-pound allowance will just about enable him to win. Shotover may be third. Third Race-Purse $400, for three-year-olds, soling allowances; six forlongs. 98 Gladiator 188 Onager 98 O. P. B 106 Wigwam 98 Lups filly 99 Amulet colt 98 Darius. 99

Lupa Billy may be the place horse and Gladia-tor may beat the others. Fourth Race,-Purse $500; selling allowances The writer can see nothing but Ma Belle in this race. She should win hands down. Brussels may be the runner up and Sir Rac third. Fifth Race. - Purse $400; weights 10 lb. below the scale; five furiougs.

This race may go to O. P. B., who has been running very well in his past races. The

The last race may go to Joe Courtney, who seems to have recovered his old form. Iceberg may be the sunner up, and La Grippe may be third. The Card at Gloucester. Judging by the usual conditions of form, weight and distance, the races at Gloucester

First Race—Lanues, Topmast, Fast Time, Second Race—Woodbury, Ida Belle, Valkyria, Third Race—Blackbury, Censor, Femet, Fourth Race—Brave, Isaquena filly, Frens H. Fifth Race—Silence, Gullir, Rave d'Or, Sixth Race—Morristown, William Henry, Qui Morning Papers' Selections First Race-Baylor, Silent. Second Race—St. Patrick, Duke John. From Race—Supa, O. P. B. Fourth Race—Ma Belle, Sir Rae. Fifth Race—Touno, Mobiesn. Sixth Race—La Grippe, Iceberg.

-day may result as follows:

First Race-Missive, Marty B. Second Race-St. Patrick, Sam Morse. Third Race-Gladiator, O. P. B. Fourth Race-Ma Belle, Brussels. sixth Race-leeberg, La Grippe.

ABANDONED HER CHILD.

old Mary Schmidt was committed to the care abandoned. Policeman Carey, of the West One Huu-

Their Annual Musicale and Ball to

of the association, will grace the occasion with his presence.

First Race—Purse $400, for beaten horses; five and a half foriouse.

1.0 Happy George 113
Marty B 120 Happy George 113
Banett 120 Happy George 143
Banett 117 Longard 143
Banett 117 Longard 143
Missive 116 Little Tuesday 101
Missive 116 Little Tuesday 101

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1892.

insomnia, capsules, commonly known as 416 medicinal dose for an ordinary healthy adult—and the chemical analysis by Drs. Tsheppe and Pringsten of the one capsule that Harris had saved from the box. The analysis showed that it contained the harm-

And then Prof. Witthaus, and his convinc disturbed. An "assignation house" is the place where the assignation is made, and does not necessarily mean that the crimina act must be committed in it.

The Largest Merigage Lender is N. V. is the Tills to committed in it.

While ra's definate of the thaw is also shown by the fact that there is a case of violation of the graphing against him since the rayes and fall particular in mat Sunday Parss. The stress and fall particular in not first the penson of Supt.

Hall [ax. Such a law would fix the penson of Supt. Murray at $4.000 per year, and its introduct human that he passes and the proposed dead the such that he region of the many owner. Already twenty-eight ladies, most of them young women, had gained entrance and sighity move.

While waiting for the undertaker to arrive, Mrs. Mccarty was started by seeing the supposed dead that the prisoner, munch the cramels and bonson and listen to the testinony.

Jun A. Taylor, once Corporation Council with hest laint. These and fall particular in our first by the grip and animation became suddenly suspended.

Shooting Down His Wife.

ruffed. The Justice, after hearing the story stocker's arrest, committed him without

They attended a ball Wednesday night and were accompanied home at 6 o'clock yester-

He refused to make any statement to THE raithful to him and sought the company of other men. She and her sister went to all the parties in the Heights.

They met Jack Dunne and George Bremner at a bail Wedesday night, given by the John E. Dunne Association. Dunne and Hremner came home with them about 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

"While in the house Arthur saw actions on the part of his wife and the two men which drove him crazy.

They induced him to join in a game of cards. After a time he began reproaching his wife fer her conduct, and Junne interiered. Then my brother went upstairs and got the pistol, and before he hardly knew what had happened, be had killed her and wounded Miss Tlerney.

"His been trying to get a divorce for over a year, but his money gave out and he had to stop proceedings."

Reviving the Scheme for a New Annexed District Railroad. Assemblyman Mulianey, of this city, he ntroduced a till in the Legislature granting additional time to the New York, Connection Few persons know that this bill in any wa

DR. JENKINS IS CONFIRMED.

Democrats.

The nomination of Samuel A. Beardsley !

four days. Heavy Differences in Suicide Hume > tew days ago, amount to nearly £80,000. The L. Luchenbach, which went out shortly after the Edgar P. Luchenbach got in this accounts. accounts.

AN EXCISE BILL INTRODUCED.

ALBANY, Jan. 29.-Mr. Endres, of Buffalo, a month.

"We still had three gallons of water left when we got in. No. 5's men were no worse

Daputy-Shariff Killed. UVALUE, Tex., Jan. 29.—A telegram received by sheriff flavior this morning an-